

The Daily Crime Log is kept in the administrative hallway outside of the Compliance Officer's office. This log is open to faculty, staff, students, visitors and the general public. If the administrative office areas are closed, you may contact the Spencerian College Department of Public Safety and they will open the administrative area to make the crime log available to you.